Women, Power and Politics in 21st Century Iran

Edited by Tara Povey and Elaheh Rostami-Povey

ASHGATE e-BOOK
WOMEN, POWER AND POLITICS IN 21ST CENTURY IRAN
We dedicate this book to women in Iran and women in Muslim-majority societies who are struggling against local and global gender injustices.
Women, Power and Politics in 21st Century Iran

Edited by

TARA POVEY
University of Sydney, Australia

ELAHEH ROSTAMI-POVEY
University of London, UK

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Tables vii
List of Contributors ix
A Note on Transliteration xiii
Glossary xv

1 Introduction
   Elaheh Rostami-Povey 1

2 The Women’s Movement in its Historical Context
   Elaheh Rostami-Povey 17

3 The Boom in Women’s Education
   Khadijeh Aryan 35

4 Autonomous Minds and Bodies in Theory and Practice: Women Constructing Cultural Identities and Becoming Visible through Art
   Mehri Honarbin-Holliday 53

5 Women and Employment
   Zahra Nejadbahram 73

6 Women, Gender Roles, Media and Journalism
   Lily Farhadpour 91

7 Women Working as Judges and Making Judicial Decisions
   Jamileh Kadivar 107

8 Women and Executive Power
   Jamileh Kadivar 121

9 Women in the Parliament
   Elaheh Koolaee 137
10 Women and the Environment: A Politico-Environmental Experience 153
   Massoumeh Ebtekar

11 The Iranian Women’s Movement in its Regional and International Context 169
   Tara Povey

12 Conclusion: Women’s Movements and Democracy Movements in Iran 183
   Tara Povey

Index 197
List of Tables

3.1 A comparison of the literacy rate before and after the 1979 revolution 40
3.2 A comparison of the population growth rate before and after the 1979 revolution 42
3.3(a) Total number and percentage of female and male students in higher education institutions (excluding private universities), 1991/92–2009/10 46
3.3(b) Total number and percentage of female and male students in Payam Noor Distance Learning University in the academic year 2008/09 46
3.3(c) Total number and percentage of female and male students in Islamic Azad (Private) University, 1996/97–2009/10 46
3.4(a) Total number and percentage of female and male graduates of all universities, 1977–2009 47
3.4(b) Total number and percentage of female students in all universities, 1978/79–2009/10 47
3.5 Faculty members of higher education institutions 49
5.1 Female labour participation in state enterprises 76
5.2 Female labour participation in industries 76
5.3 The number of female candidates and the number of elected female councillors in the city council elections (1999–2006) 86
6.1 Percentage of female journalists, 1971–2006 100
9.1 Percentage of female candidates and MPs in the Iranian parliaments in comparison with male candidates and MPs 138
9.2 Percentage of women’s involvement in the NGOs and municipal and village councils 140
This page has been left blank intentionally
List of Contributors

Khadijeh Aryan is an academic and a practising psychologist. She is a tenured fellow of the Faculty of Psychology and Education at Allameh Tabatabaei University in Tehran and also a lecturer at the University of Tehran. She is a board member of the Iranian Counselling Association and also a member of the editorial board of several journals. She was a visiting fellow at the Institute of Education, University of London from 2005 to 2007. Between 2002 and 2004, she served as the Director General for the Bureau of International Scientific Cooperation of the Ministry of Education and was the Secretary General of ‘ISESCO’ in Iran. Dr Aryan has conducted extensive research in the areas of counselling, psychotherapy, play therapy and shadow education. She has published five textbooks and organised many workshops in these fields. She is the author of numerous articles in journals such as Counselling Research and Development and major Iranian newspapers such as Ettella’at.

Massoumeh Ebtekar was the Vice President and Head of the Department of the Environment (DOE) between 1997 and 2005. In 2006 she was awarded the United Nations Environment Programme ‘Champion of the Earth’ prize for advances in Iran in the fields of air pollution abatement, enforcement of environmental standards to protect water, regional seas, biodiversity, natural forests and for successful international environmental stewardship (www.unep.org). Since 2007, she is a member of the Tehran City Council and an Associate Professor of Immunology at Tarbiat Moddares University (www.modares.ac.ir), and Head of the Centre for Peace and Environment (an NGO). Dr Ebtekar is the licence holder of Farzaneh journal of women’s studies and is also an active blogger in both Farsi and English. She is the author of Khooshehaye Shahrivar (The Grapes of Shahrivar: Memoirs of the First Woman in the Cabinet of the Islamic Republic of Iran) and Takeover in Tehran, the inside story of the 1979 capture of the US Embassy. A collection of her articles and speeches (Natural Peace and Ethics) on environmental issues has been published in English. She has also written articles for the International Journal of Environmental Studies, Our Planet (UNEP publication) and for many other Iranian journals in the field of immunology as well as the environment.

Lily Farhadpour is a writer and journalist. She is the author of a number of books, among them History of Newspapers in Iran (a historical novel for young adults), History of Traditional Publishing in Iran, Berlin Women (a political analysis), The Window with a Blue Glass Opening to the Back Alley (a collection of short stories), Striped Saturdays and Leaden Seconds (a novel) and Metro Line 4 (a novel).